Larry Kowalczyk brings over thirty years legal experience and is distinguished as AV® Preeminent™ Peer Review Rated by Martindale-Hubbell. He has successfully represented private businesses as well as public entities in a diverse array of complex litigation cases in both state and federal court.

Larry has extensive experience defending a wide variety of civil rights cases, including reversed conviction, federal pretrial detention, officer-involved shootings, use of force and other constitutional claims. He has been honored to represent hundreds of police officers along with their respective governmental entities.

Larry has represented private entities in commercial and business disputes, including breach of contract, trade secret, tortious interference and restrictive covenant litigation. In addition, Larry has defended product liability and toxic tort matters including mass tort litigation, asbestos exposure, large drug recalls, medical product litigation, and clinical trials of drug testing prior to FDA approval. His construction matters have included contract review and drafting, commercial matters, and defending contractors in construction injury cases. He has tried over forty civil jury trials with a very high success rate.

"Larry's extensive trial experience and dedication to his clients have earned him the respect of his adversaries and peers."
